

INTERCOL CODE OF CONDUCT

(Appendix II of Intercol Constitution as of September 2014)

The University of Sydney Colleges form the oldest and most respected collegiate system within Australian, renown both for the strength and independence of individual colleges and the spirit of the community as a whole. This reputation is built on traditions of decency, honesty and fierce competition carried out in a spirit of sportsmanship. In keeping with this heritage, membership of your College, and thus of the wider Inter-College community, places the following expectations upon your standards of behaviour. You will be asked to sign a declaration stating that you consent to the terms of this document and that you understand that you will face disciplinary action for any breach of the guidelines

1. GENERAL BEHAVIOUR

All actions and behaviour undertaken as a College member are subject to both individual College harassment policies and the Intercol Harassment Policy (1996). Any form of harassment whether it be sexual, racial, religious or otherwise will not be tolerated. All College members should be familiar with the provisions of both College and Intercol Policies.

Penalty for Breach: Individual fines of up to $250, suspension or expulsion from College. The matter may also be referred to the University Harassment officer, other University authorities or the Police.

2. ROSEBOWL & RAWSON CUP EVENTS

Support in sporting competitions should focus on positive encouragement, not negative criticism or sledging. The vilification or abuse of other Colleges by spectators is not acceptable behaviour. Penalty for Breach: Individual fines of up to $250, temporary or permanent banning from all Intercol and College social and sporting events, and/or suspension or expulsion from College. The College may also face fines of up to $1000, suspension from Sydney University Sport facilities and/or the entire College's suspension from Intercol for a set period. Matters may also be referred to the University authorities or the Police.

3. ALCOHOL POLICY

Alcohol should be used responsibly at all times. At sporting events, alcohol may only be consumed in compliance with Responsible Service of Alcohol guidelines, the Intercol Constitution and the policy of individual venues Penalty for Breach: Individual fines of up to $250, temporary or permanent banning from all Intercol and College social and sporting events, and/or suspension or expulsion from College. The College may also face fines of up to $1000, suspension from Sydney University Sport facilities and/or the entire College's suspension from Intercol for a set period. Matters may also be referred to the University authorities or the Police.

4. INTER-COLLEGIATE BEHAVIOUR

Any person caught vandalising, damaging or stealing from another College will face both internal and Intercol disciplinary action. Similarly, Intercol has the ability to take action against any person caught gatecrashing another College's function or behaving inappropriately at any official Intercol function.

Penalty for Breach: Individual fines of up to $250 plus value of damage and/or reporting of incident to the appropriate College, University authorities or the Police. The College may also face fines of up to $1000, suspension from Sydney University Sport facilities and/or the entire College's suspension from Intercol for a set period.

5. COMPETITION IN ROSEBOWL, RAWSON CUP OR OTHER INTERCOL EVENTS

All competitors, in any form of Intercol competition, should be familiar with the rules governing the eligibility to compete and understand the penalties covering unlawful participation. All sports are carried out under the rules set by the governing state or national authority and may also be subject to special provisions under the Intercol Constitution. Competitors should ensure they have a full knowledge of the relevant regulations before starting the competition.

Penalty for Breach: Individual, team or College disqualification from any event. Any individual found to be in contravention of the rules governing eligibility will automatically disqualify the entire team. The College may also face fines of up to $1000, suspension from Sydney University Sport facilities, loss of Rawson Cup/Rosebowl points, and/or the entire College's suspension from Intercol for a set period.

The Code of Conduct acts only as a summary of Intercol policy. For more details, consult Part V of the Intercol Constitution (2008)
